Police Scotland ward update noted.

5 There was heard a report by Inspector Jonathan Watters, Police Scotland, advising that

(1) the new Divisional Commander, Chief Supt Lynn Ratcliff, was now in post;

(2) 40 e-bikes and scooters had been seized and held?? at the Polmadie compound until the owners could provide insurance documents;

(3) the increase of parades and demonstrations in different locations on a weekly basis was challeging resourses;

(4) the Shoplifting Awareness pilot would continue to help reduce the increase in shoplifting and that young people were the main suspects and several youths had been arrested; and

(5) antisocial behaviour at the 4 corners on Argyle Street, especially in McDonalds, was on the increase and that Police Scotland had been in contact with businesses to try and alleviate the issue, with security in place nightly.

After consideration, the Partnership noted the report and thanked Inspector Watters for the update.
