Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between the City of Glasgow (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland) and the City of Mykolaiv (Ukraine) on the establishment of a solidarity partnership

The City of Mykolaiv and the City of Glasgow are united in their aim to develop ties between their people in the interest of peaceful coexistence and in the spirit of international cooperation, tolerance and mutual understanding.

1. Areas of cooperation

1.1 Glasgow and Mykolaiv hereby agree on a solidarity partnership, which forms the foundation for the development of a long-term friendship between the two cities.

1.2 Within the limits of their responsibilities and possibilities, the cities will be strengthening relations and cooperation in areas of mutual benefit and prosperity.

1.3 These objectives will be achieved through many forms of cooperation, such as exchange of know-how, partnerships and reciprocal visits by delegations from the cities, organizations, associations etc.

1.4 Areas of cooperation under this MoU include, but is not limited to, the following:

- citizenship and humanity,
- economic development, trade, and industry including construction,
- green transition including urban management and public utilities,
- environment and sustainability,
- science, technology, and education,
- culture, health and sports,
- youth policy

1.5 The specific activities of cooperation will be agreed upon the administrations of the two cities and further set forth in the annex to this Memorandum of Understanding.

2. Final provisions

2.1 The parties consider this Memorandum of Understanding between the City of Glasgow (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland) and the City of Mykolaiv (Ukraine) on the establishment of a solidarity partnership as a declaration of intent that does not result in legal or financial consequences or obligations for either of them.

2.2 This Memorandum of Understanding between the city of Glasgow (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland) and the city of Mykolaiv (Ukraine) on mutual understanding and solidary partnership enters into force on the day of its signing and is valid for five years. The Memorandum may be renewed for the same term and under the same conditions upon agreement of the parties concluded before the expiration of the Memorandum.

2.3 This Memorandum may be terminated by either party's written notice of termination to the other party.

2.4 This Memorandum between the city of Glasgow (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland) and the city of Mykolaiv (Ukraine) on mutual understanding and solidary partnership is available in two copies in English and Ukrainian. Both cities will receive one copy in each language. All versions are considered equally authentic and valid. In the last instance, the English version shall prevail. All versions signed on _____.

Mykolaiv City Council 20, Admiralska Street, Mykolaiv, Ukraine	Glasgow City Council _____
Mayor	Mayor
_____ O. Syenkevych	_____