Hate Crime Working Group update noted.

6 There was heard and note a report by the Executive Director of Neighbourhoods, Regeneration and Sustainability providing an update on the Hate Crime Working Group's thematic action plans, advising

(1) that the Hate Crime Awareness week 2023 had taken place between 16th and 21st October 2023 with a series of events delivered, focussing on empowering people to report hate crime;

(2) of the successful social media campaign and adverts placed at SPT Subway stations, BT Hubs around the city and on local radio stations, all promoting awareness of the campaign;

(3) that hate crime reporting in Glasgow had increased in 4 out of 5 protected characteristic areas in this last reporting year;

(4) that the 'Supporting Victims of Hate Crime Conference' had taken place on 19th October 2023, with 30 delegates in attendance that included partners from Police Scotland, Victim Support Scotland and the West of Scotland Regional Equality Council; and

(5) Third Party Reporting was currently under a national review as part of the Scottish Government's Hate Crime Strategy, with an expectation that the delivery plan accompanying the new strategy would be published in early 2024.

After consideration, the Partnership noted

(a) the update by the Hate Crime Working Group;

(b) the growth of delivery in the National Hate Crime Awareness Week compared to that of 2022;

(c) the ongoing national developments around third party reporting; and

(d) that the Wheatley Group would provide information to all Members in relation to tenancy procedures in connection with anti-social behaviour/hate crime reporting.
