North West Glasgow Voluntary Sector Network – Update noted.

8 There was heard a report by Jane Cowie, North West Glasgow Voluntary Sector Network (NWGVSN) providing an update on their work, advising that

(1) Let Partick Flourish had facilitated 22 new bikes and bike accessories for local people who previously had no access to a bike through the Access Bikes project offering under £15,000 by Cycling UK;

(2) of the continued concerns with regards to the cost of living crisis, the demand on services and anti-social behaviour in some wards;

(3) Partick Community Growing project was grateful for the £5,000 funding that ensured 100 local people received a £50 Morrisons voucher that made February a bit easier to get through financially; and

(4) Love Thornwood, Glasgow Eco Trust, a ward councillor and Education Services were working in partnership and ahad been running a community survey about improvements to the pitches at Thornwood Primary https://www.glasgowecotrust.org.uk/News/thornwood-pitch-survey
