St Patricks Primary School Living Wall

As part of the design development process for the St Patricks, NRS have been made aware of a proprietary product which would offer measurable acoustic benefits, as well as the amenity benefits envisaged in our original proposal to the NIIF fund.

Studies suggest potential physical and mental wellbeing benefits to citizens from measures to reduce traffic noise, and cognitive development in children, with an example of a paper here: WHO Environmental Noise Guidelines for the European Region: A Systematic Review of Transport Noise Interventions and Their Impacts on Health - PubMed (nih.gov)

Whilst not advertised as such, we would anticipate that any barrier solid enough to reduce traffic noise may change local patterns of air (and therefore particulate) movement, in addition to the particulate matter 'capture' of the willow leaves themselves.

High performance noise barrier with 120mm thick absorbent acoustic core. Living willow panels on the preferred side and woven willow panels to the rear. (Please note that living willow barriers are normally only installable between December and April/May)
Available in heights 1.50mtrs to 2.50m.

In light of the planting season for willow barriers and the construction industry closure over the Christmas holiday period, we will ask the contractor for a programme which utilises the February school holiday period to minimise inconvenience to the school community.

This service has been advised that the area around the MPGC is required for use by the school and as such is not available at this time for raised beds, and so there is an option for the Partnership to reallocate these funds to the above project. This service is arranging to meet again with the school following this meeting of the Area Partnership, so that we can discuss next steps.

Project cost: £70,000
Existing funding: £6000 Neighbourhood infrastructure Improvement Fund

Recommendation: It is recommended that the £3,042 previously allocated for raised beds at this location are reallocated to this project, and that a further £60,958 is allocated from Neighbourhood infrastructure Improvement Fund.
