Police Scotland ward update noted etc.

7 There was heard and noted a report by Sergeant Alan Freeland, Police Scotland, advising the Partnership

(1) that there had not been many incidents and that Police Scotland continued to carry out house visits in relation to anti-social behavour issues;

(2) of the targeted intelligence of newsagents who were selling illegal cigarettes and vapes; and

(3) of the current progress that Police Scotland was making within the ward in relation to quad bikes and electric bikes.

After consideration, the Partnership

(a) noted the report and thanked Sergeant Freeland for the update and all the work carried out by Police Scotland within the ward; and

(b) raised a number of questions and enquiries that were addressed by Sergeant Freeland.
