Police Scotland ward update noted etc.

4 There was heard a report by Inspector Stephen Gow, Police Scotland, advising the Partnership that

(1) he had become the new community inspector since July 2024;

(2) there had been no issues with fireworks in the Shettleston area and that bonfire removal had gone well however calls had increased slightly;

(4) Police Scotland had access to a Microsoft power Business Intelligence dashboard which allowed them access to statistics and figures;

(5) a social media campaign was running highlighting the importance of keeping houses locked and lighting on during the festive period and that Coffee with a Cop was also advertised on social media; and

(6) following successful intelligence £130,000 worth of cannabis had been recovered.

After consideration, the Partnership

(a) noted the report; and

(b) highlighted an area of concern regarding a bonfire in the Tollcross area.
