

Spotlight on Wellbeing for Learning Workstream - Presentation noted.

3 The committee heard and noted a presentation by Fiona Mackenzie, Workstream Lead Officer, West Partnership, providing an update on the Wellbeing for Learning Workstream, highlighting

- (1) that the Wellbeing for Learning Workstream recognised the importance of wellbeing in the learning process and aimed to empower practitioners to provide the best possible environment for learners;
- (2) recent workstream activity around the 4 focus areas of Professional Learning, Resources, Collaborative Working and Specialist Networks; and
- (3) a number of proposed outcomes which had been identified through engaging in collaborative activities and which were hoped to be in place by June 2025.
