

Police Scotland ward update noted etc.

4 There was heard and noted a report by Chief Inspector Stephen McManus, Police Scotland, advising the Partnership

- (1) Inspector Iain Sibbald had retired from Police Scotland;
- (2) the Violence Prevention Partnership had been initiated in the North West of the city, to assist in the prevention of anti-social behaviour of people in the area;
- (3) body-worn video cameras had come into force on 23rd March 2026;
- (4) that after the attack in London, they have increased Police presence in and around the synagogues;
- (4) that the new City Centre dispersal zone had resulted in 578 warnings been issued with arrests taken place for re-offending again in the area; and
- (5) that Police Scotland would be conducting a high-visibility day of action on the 22nd May 2026 with patrols in Glasgow to deter crime, prevent anti-social behaviour, and improve public safety.

After consideration, the Partnership noted the report and thanked Chief Inspector McManus for the update and all the work carried out by Police Scotland in the ward.
