Police Scotland – ward update noted.

7 There was heard and noted an update by Inspector Scott Simpson, Police Scotland, advising the Partnership of the current progress that Police Scotland had made within the ward, advising that

(1) Police Scotland officers continued to provide support to local schools with regard to the car free zones and that fixed penalty notices had been issued when appropriate;

(2) there had been an increase in the theft of high performance cars in the ward and that Police Scotland would be providing advice on risk reduction to members of the public; and

(3) the theft of pedal bikes continued to be an ongoing issue, and that further bike marking events would take place in the future.
