Police Scotland ward update noted - Request to Police Scotland.

2 There was heard a report by Inspector Mark McLaughlan, Police Scotland, advising the Partnership of the feedback that Police Scotland had received in relation to the recent Hampden Cup Final between Celtic and Rangers which was overall a success and that;

(1) the main feedback from the event was of street drinking with police finding 500 containers of alcohol;

(2) that for Scottish Cup Semi Final between Celtic and Rangers on Sunday 30th April 2023, Police Scotland would be deploying officers on the ground from 7am onwards; and

(3) of the continued ongoing anti-social behaviour incidents at Asda and McDonalds in Toryglen and that engagement work with Asda, McDonalds and other groups would continue to prevent future incidents in the area.

After consideration, the Partnership

(a) raised questions and concerns regarding the next Scottish Cup Semi Final between Celtic and Rangers on Sunday 30th April and requested that Police Scotland engage with local stewards from both clubs; and

(b) requested that Police Scotland approach both clubs for extra resources for managing fans for the Scottish Cup Semi Final.
