Police Scotland Ward update noted etc.

6 There was heard a report by Inspector Mhairi Crawford, Police Scotland, advising

(1) of the current progress that Police Scotland was making within the Ward in relation to crime and anti-social behaviour (ASB);

(2) of the Local Police Plans 2023 – 2026 consultaion, to seek the views of stakeholders and the community, that could be accessed at https://consult.scotland.police.uk/strategy-insight-and-innovation/lpp2023/. The survey should be completed by 12th February 2023, with the results published in April 2023;

(3) that the statistics for public nuisance calls and disturbances had fallen;

(4) of the ASB operation that continued to be monitored and patrolled within Dyce Park and that incidents had reduced but there had been reports of ASB in the area of Beith Street and that local officers had conducted uniformed foot partols and had been engaging with the youths in the area to encourage them to disperse from the area and that local campus officers would continue to monitor this;

(5) of the continued engagement with licenced premises;

(6) that bike thefts continued to be an issue and that there had been bike marking events succesfully conducted within the Ward and that these events would continue over the coming months, with events planned for Byres Road, Kelvingrove Park, the Woodlands area and the Riverside Museum;

(7) house break-ins and car thefts continued to be monitored and any suspicious activity should be reported to Police Scotland; and

(8) that road safety remained a local policing priority and that officers continued to conduct road safety action plans targeting hot spots, in particular around the Free Car Zones area at Notre Dame Primary School and Hyndland Primary School and that officers would continue, where possible, to engage with drivers providing Education on road safety matters and in enforcing road traffic legislation where appropriate.
