Common Purpose Programme

The Common Purpose Programme was welcomed to Eastgate, the theme of which was “Embracing Difference”. During the session, officers provided a hate crime input and explained police procedures, community engagement and how hate crime can be reported to police.

The TAG Advisory Group

The TAG Advisory Group support disabled people throughout Scotland and officers have engaged with Glasgow members at various meetings and events. Officers continue to educate members on hate crime to help recognise that behaviours of others should not be tolerated and may constitute an offence. Officers provided training in “I am me” - Keep Safe Places and Third Party Reporting.

Engagement

Officers continue to engage with various communities throughout Glasgow and attend events including the Second Celebration of the United Yemeni Community in Scotland, at the Burrell Collection and the World Day of Culture and Diversity at Govan and Linthouse Parish Church, which was attended by the First Minister.
