Police Scotland ward update noted etc.

5 There was heard a report by Inspector Colin MacLucas, Police Scotland, advising the Partnership

(1) of the current progress that Police Scotland was making within the ward in relation to drugs and youth disorder;

(2) that officers continued to monitor with road stops on Maryhill Road and Queen Margaret Drive, issuing parking tickets where appropriate;

(3) that doorstep crime continued to be a problem across the city and that Police Scotland had launched a national campaign called “Shut out Scammers” and that a vehicle would be going around communities to raise awareness and provide guidance on the matter of doorstep crime; and

(4) to encourage members and the public to continue to report incidents to Police Scotland.
