Police Scotland ward update noted.

3 There was heard a verbal report by Inspector Mark McLaughlan, Police Scotland, advising the Partnership that

(1) future events at Scotland's national stadium Hampden would present challenges including the 12th September international friendly football match between Scotland and England and the Scottish football Viaplay semi-finals being the same time as Guy Fawkes night;

(2) correct measures would be put in place to combat stress for local residents due to these events;

(3) a lot of troubling graffiti had recently appeared in the local area with the graffiti being of a racist and fascist nature;

(4) graffiti tags would be used to identify offenders;

(5) there had been a decrease in youth disorder at Toryglen McDonalds and Asda; and

(6) the Your Police survey was still live and Inspector McLaughlan encouraged members to circulate across their networks as there had been a low number of responses so far.

After consideration, the Partnership

(a) noted the report; and

(b) raised a number of concerns and questions that were addressed by Inspector McLaughlan.
