Police Scotland ward update noted.

3 There was heard a verbal report by Inspector Gerry Bryceland, Police Scotland, advising the Partnership that

(1) there had been an overall decline in youth anti-social behaviour;

(2) Police Scotland had worked with McDonald's management to reduce youth disorder in the fast food outlet and a security guard was now in place;

(3) there had been an increase in keyless vehicle theft within the ward;

(4) local residents had been provided with free signal blocker key pouches;

(5) there had been an increase in police patrols in the evening;

(6) due to an increase in house breaks ins, the police had been providing households security awareness home visits and there was also an option to email the police for home security visits;

(7) off-road motorbikes remained a significant problem in certain locations; and

(8) Police Scotland had been working with Fearless and Crimestoppers to stop youth violence.

After consideration, the Partnership

(a) noted the report; and

(b) raised a number of concerns and questions that were addressed by Inspector Bryceland.
