Police Scotland - Local Policing Plan 2023-26 - Year 1 - Performance for Quarter 1 noted.

8 There was submitted a report by Chief Superintendent Mark Sutherland, Police Scotland, providing an overview of the current performance of Police Scotland during the Quarter 1 period from 1st April to 30th June 2023, advising

(1) that Police Scotland continued to drive forward its Public Health Approach to policing, which involved working closely with partners to support vulnerable members of communities;

(2) of the work being undertaken in relation to crime, community wellbeing, events and operations and serious organised crime;

(3) that domestic abuse of females had noted a 10.6% reduction compared to the same period the previous year;

(4) that sadly, there had been 7 fatal road crashes in this quarter, one cyclist and 6 pedestrians, 2 of which had been children;

(5) that Greater Glasgow Division continued to work with Professional Standards to monitor complaints and allegations and identify any trends; and

(6) that there had been a 19.2% decrease in complaints compared to the previous year, with a 24.7% reduction compared to the 3-year average.

After consideration, the Partnership noted that

(a) Chief Superintendent Sutherland would be on secondment for the next 3 months and Chief Superintendent David Robertson would be covering in his absence; and

(b) near misses for road incidents were not currently recorded, however this could be looked at by the group working on the Road Safety Glasgow Community Choices exercise.
