(ii) to consider gender balance on this Sector Review Panel.

Glasgow Helps Project – Update etc noted.

6 There was submitted a report by Glasgow Helps Renewal Manager, Chief Executive's Department regarding the progress of the Glasgow Helps Project, advising that

(1) Glasgow Helps had been initially established in 2020 to support those affected by the COVID-19 pandemic and had been further developed to offer a more general level of support to citizens across Glasgow;

(2) recognising that it was often difficult and confusing to understand the volume, type and extent of support networks available in the city, Glasgow Helps seeks to navigate these along side the citizen and that the team works with the Glasgow Council for the Voluntary Sector and partners from the public sector to identify and create a range of support pathways that can help to assist citizens in accessing the support they need;

(3) the Glasgow Helps team engage in holistic conversations with the aim of creating a joint understanding of the issues that matter most to citizens before agreeing the best way forward and can provide general advice or information and help with the likes of food and fuel; and

(4) Glasgow Helps can be contacted directly or via a referral from an agency or stakeholder.

After consideration and having heard Ms Kirsty Collins, Glasgow Helps Renewal Manager, the Partnership noted the progress of the Glasgow Helps Project and its contact details.

Scottish Fire and Rescue Service - Update noted.

7 There was submitted and noted a report by the Group Commander, Brian Winter, Scottish Fire and Rescue Service detailing the South Glasgow performance report for the period from 1st April to 30th June 2022.

Review of Sector and Area Partnerships – Update noted.

8 With reference to the minutes of 1st February 2022 noting the decisions taken by the Glasgow Community Planning Partnership Strategic Partnership on 7th December 2021 in relation to a review of the Sector and Area Partnerships and the next steps with regard to the Sector Partnerships, there was submitted a report by the Director of Community Empowerment and Equalities regarding an update on the future of Sector Partnerships,

(1) advising

(a) of the factors which had been considered and which would inform a report on the future of Sector Partnerships for submission to the Strategic Partnership;

(b) that the Social Recovery Taskforce which had been set up during the COVID-19 pandemic, had developed the next version of Glasgow's Community Action Plan which would be delivered over 3 phases with a refreshed plan being submitted to a future meeting of this Partnership;

(c) of the expected role for Sector Partnerships in relation to the assessment and review process of the Glasgow Communities Fund 2023-26;

(d) that the impact of the decisions which would be taken on the future role of Area Partnerships and the resources required to implement those changes were still being determined as the transition to a new way of working takes shape;

(e) of the main findings of the smart survey which had been launched to inform recommendations on the future of Sector Partnerships and Senior Officer Groups; and

(f) that an analysis of the responses had made it clear that there was a large degree of uncertainty around the role and value of Sector Partnerships and that if they were to remain part of the Community Planning structure in Glasgow then clear roles and remits needed to be established that had the backing of the range of partners involved; and

(2) detailing in the Appendix to the report, a full breakdown of responses to the smart survey.

After consideration, the Partnership noted

(i) an update on the work undertaken by the Social Recovery Taskforce and the development of a refreshed Community Action Plan for the city;

(ii) the views of Community Planning partners via a Smart Survey;

(iii) an update on the review of the Glasgow Communities Fund; and

(iv) the comments made at this meeting on the review which would inform a report to the Strategic Partnership in December 2022 on the future of Sector Partnerships.
