Police Scotland ward update noted etc.

6 There was heard and noted a report by Inspector Colin MacLucas, Police Scotland, advising the Partnership

(1) of the £50m savings that Police Scotland faced during 2023/24, which would affect services;

(2) of the current progress that Police Scotland was making within the ward in relation to drugs and anti-social behaviour;

(3) of the ongoing work dealing with repeat calls and demands and looking to work with partners and trying to stop things prior to them happening in the ward and community engagement;

(4) of the current progress that Police Scotland was making within the ward and surrounding East Dunbartonshire and Clydebank in relation to the use of trail bikes along the Canal side;

(5) that the Your Police Survey was now live and analysed weekly, whilst indicating that it would be anonymous, take around 10 minutes to complete and could be accessed at https://consult.scotland.police.uk/strategy-insight-and_innovation/your-police-2023-2024/ or insightengagement@scotland.police.uk ; and

(6) to encouraged members and the public to continue to report incidents to Police Scotland.

After consideration, the Partnership

(a) noted the report and thanked Inspector MacLucas for this and all the work carried out by Police Scotland within the ward; and

(b) highlighted concerns with regards to anti-social behaviour around the Wyndford area which was address by Inspector MacLucas.
