North West Glasgow Voluntary Sector Network update noted.

11 There was heard and noted an update by Lainy Bedingfield, North West Glasgow Voluntary Sector Network (NWGVSN) providing an update on their work, advising that

(1) the current energy crisis had seen an increase in members of the community seeking help from local food and support services;

(2) the Third Sector would look to create warm and safe spaces throughout the winter should funding be available to do so;

(3) a People Forum was being developed, with the first meeting taking place in October;

(4) the Glasgow Communities Fund was open to applications, with £10 million available to organisations in North West Glasgow; and

(5) as part of the IT recycling project, a powerbank library would be created to allow people to charge their devices without using additional energy to do so.
