

Glasgow Violence Against Women Partnership – Update noted.

8 There was submitted and noted a report by the Executive Director of Neighbourhoods, Regeneration and Sustainability regarding an update on the work of the Glasgow Violence Against Women Partnership, advising

- (1) that the GVAWP city wide strategic plan was still in draft form and the final version would be considered at a GVAWP meeting later this year;
- (2) of the recently formed Scottish Government taskforce, that would provide leadership for the development of a national multi-agency domestic homicide and suicide review model for Scotland;
- (3) of a newly created 'Fund to Leave' pilot project running until 31st March 2024, that would support women and children experiencing domestic abuse by making awards of up to £1000 to reduce risk and increase safety;
- (4) of the work of the WAIR Group (Women, Immigration, Asylum and Refugee) who would be prioritising an Action Plan to be included as part of the GVAWP Strategic Plan; and
- (5) that Glasgow MARAC (Multi-agency Risk Assessment Conference) continued to receive a high volume of referrals, and discussions were due to take place with the Steering Group and HSCP to try and find a solution to concerns raised surrounding HSCP no longer being able to attend additional multi-locality meetings.
