Proposals for primary school reserved places for school session 2025/26 approved.

1 Councillor Cannon, Convener for Education and Early Years, presented a report regarding the proposed number of reserved places for named primary schools for school session 2025/26, advising of

- (1) the background and experience to date in utilising the reserved places provision within the Education (Scotland) Act 1991, as amended by the Standards in Scotland's Schools etc Act 2000, to manage the education estate in a strategic manner and address capacity issues before they developed;
- (2) the factors used in determining the number of reserved places for school session 2025/26; and
- (3) the list of 68 primary schools and the number of places to be reserved in each school for session 2025/26, as detailed in Appendix 1 to the report.

After consideration, the committee

- (a) noted

- (i) the successful implementation of the reserved places provision in previous school sessions; and
 - (ii) the existing factors for determining reserved places for school session 2025/26 based on the experience gained since introduction in 2014/15; and
- (b) approved the list of schools and number of places to be reserved in each for school session 2025/26.
