A memorial bench to be place in the ground GCC to put a memorial stone marking all the service men and women who served in the Wyndford Barracks from 1872 to 1960. It will have the 4 names of the service men who got the Victoria cross for their bravery. This memorial bench will be put next to the stone to allow members of these service men and women when visiting the site, a chance to reflect about their family member or past friend. We will be having our open day in June at the site of the stone were all local political and lord provost etc will attend as the newspapers and Tv news to mark the occasion.	This would sit next to the memorial stone at the ground next to 60 Glenfinnan Road Central Maryhill Community Council have planning permission from GCC
