1.1 To present the annual report from the Glasgow City Chief Social Work Officer for the year 2025/26, prepared in line with guidance from Scottish Government.

2. Background

2.1 The requirement for every local authority to appoint a professionally qualified Chief Social Work Officer is contained within Section 3 of the Social Work (Scotland) Act 1968. This is one of a number of statutory requirements in relation to posts, roles or duties with which local authorities must comply.

2.2 The Chief Social Work Officer (CSWO) is required to produce an annual report that outlines the activities and performance of social work services across the local authority. This report must be considered by the local authority and shared with the Scottish Government. The CSWO's role includes ensuring the provision of effective, professional advice to local authorities in relation to social work services and ensuring the delivery of safe, effective, and innovative practice. The report should cover the period from April 2025 to March 2026 and should reflect the challenges and achievements of social work services in Glasgow City during this period.
