Dear Catherine

I have attached the latest Edinburgh taxi tariff review. I know Glasgow is not Edinburgh

I would like to draw your attention to pages 6 and 18 where it discusses trade consultation and properly minuted meetings

This is how Edinburgh gets the increases and tariff it needs, and the appeal process is almost nil, not like Glasgow

Surely this would be better for all and save a lot of work for all, with proper consultation

You will also note that Edinburgh uses benchmarks: (page 6) a 2 mile and 5 mile hires, this, I said to Dr Cooper, needs to be done

Yours sincerely

Allan Nugent
