

Question.

8 An answer to the following question, of which notice had been given under Standing Order No 11 by Councillor Colin Deans, was given by Councillor Alex Glass, Assistant Business Manager.

“Will the administration give consideration to reviewing the process by which Elected Members are appointed to external bodies, including the process of distributing such places to opposition members and further ensure that training provided to Councillors is robust and ensures understanding of good governance, duties and responsibilities of directors to the boards on which they sit?”
